A HISTORY OF RESISTENCE: THE SIEGE OF VENETIANS IN GALLIPOLI #2

Due to its geographical position and economic importance, Gallipoli was strategic in 1500. This was the starting point for the Venetian expedition in 1484, with the intention of conquering the fortress. Last Sunday we were left at the plan that General Marcello was developing, divided into three phases: landing of a contingent ten miles south-east of the city, positioning of the fleet around the city and, if it should not yield to threats, attack by land and sea. The plan was implemented on the morning of May 17, 1484. Before the attack was launched, there were several attempts at mediation in which the Venetians asked the city to surrender, with the promises of the highest political offices of the Serenissima. But despite the flattery, the city declared its loyalty to its King Ferrante, in deference to that "Fideliter Excubat" (faithfully watches over) that still adorns the coat of arms of the municipality today. With the rejection of what were once called "Gallipolitani", the Venetian general had no choice but to move on to phase three of the plan...

VERMENTINO
FROM 1980
In Salento

The Vermentino Li Cuti was born in the 80s from an experiment conducted with the scholar Giovanni De Rinaldis. This vine here, in the Ionian-Gallipolitan arch, has found favorable soil and microclimate. The intuition came to Carlo Antonio Coppola from the memory of the vineyards of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, in the area of the lower Rhone in France, which he visited in 1952, characterized by a very pebbly soil. The experts Antonio Calò and Angelo Costacurta praised the Vermentino Li Cuti in their book "Dei Vitigni Italiani". Try it as a fresh aperitif.

From 1400 to the present a journey through family history with sailing boats and art, entrepreneurship, viticulture and hospitality

The Coppola, of Sicilian origin, came to Gallipoli in the fifteenth century. In the Beautiful City, Orsino Coppola in 1489 married Laura Cuti, descendant of a noble family of the place, which brought in dowry an estate of 8 hectares in the countryside of Sannicola, handed down from father to son for 15 generations and still owned by Coppola and cultivated with vineyards. In 1715, Carlo Antonio Coppola built Palazzo Coppola in Alezio, in the cellars of which there was a millstone for crushing grapes and a barrels cellar capable of holding 20 large chestnut wood barrels.

In the next generation, we remember Giovanni, journalist, founded the daily newspaper "Lo Spartaco" (1887-1914).

In the twentieth century the farm Coppola began to consolidate its entrepreneurial character thanks to innovations introduced by Niccolò, son of Giovanni, who graduated in engineering in 1921, during the period of grape harvesting was fully dedicated to the winery property until he decided to build a winery equipped with modern techniques of vinification. The dedication of the engineer Niccolò found fertile ground in the inclinations of one of his sons, Carlo Antonio, who in 1947 gained a specialization in viticulture, oenology and aromathery oenology at the Regia Scuola Enologica Umberto I in Alba. In the same year, thanks to the professionalism of Carlo Antonio began bottling the wines produced. The far-sighted corporate philosophy that is based on the combination of innovation and tradition, is strongly outlined in those years

Since 1489, a great passion for wine

The history of Cantina Coppola is closely linked to that of the Coppola family and dates back to 1489.

In 2012 Niccolò Coppola s.r.l. was included in the national register of historic companies and was awarded the National Prize "From father to son. Il gusto di fare impresa" promoted by the Milan and Monza Chambers of Commerce.

The only winery to preserve the tradition of the territory by bottling the ALEZIO DOC, a small denomination of negroamaro (from the areas of Gallipoli, Alezio, Tuglie and Sannicola) to which Carlo Antonio Coppola, founder of the winery and father of the present owners Giuseppe and Lucio gave a fundamental contribution.

Among the agronomic practices, those of organic farming are preferred, such as green manure and mechanical weeding. Harvesting is done by hand.

The company also produced extra virgin and virgin olive oil (by choice) from its own olive groves.

"We believe that such an artistic heritage should not be the joy and delight of very few, it should be scattered among the various descendants, but remain united and at the sight of all.

With this motivation, in 1982 the Coppola family donated 22 precious paintings by the painter Giovanni Andrea Coppola, born in Gallipoli in 1596, to the Municipality of Gallipoli.

On August 10, 2012 the mayor Francesco Errico inaugurated the room "Coppola Collection".

"Natura Morta" Giovanni Andrea Coppola

In 1965 the engineer Niccolò Coppola, following the project discussed in his thesis on the construction of a large hotel and the tourist potential of Salento, left the profession and founded the Camping La Vecchia Torre, the first open-air tourist facility in Salento. The sign at the entrance is clear: "Tourism organization of the Niccolò Coppola farm". The innovations continue, in 1980 Carlo Antonio, supported by his wife Maria, creates a second tourist complex in continuity with the first, the Camping La Masseria. Both villages are now active and frequented by tourists from all over the world.

In 2004, to consecrate the binomial tourism-agriculture, the decisive choice to build within the area of the camping, the new Cantina Coppola. "The wine cellar with the village around it the first model of a hospitable winery in Italy. For about a year the company has been engaged in a further entrepreneurial challenge: the construction of a new winery, which will be inaugurated in June, modern and innovative in form and materials, projected exclusively to welcome the wine tourist involving him in a fascinating tour that starts from the vineyards and ends with the tasting in a Wine Room overlooking the vineyards.

A challenge that involves the entire family: Nanni, Giuseppe with his wife Annarita, Lucio with his wife Paola represent today the fifteenth generation of entrepreneurs in the field of wine growing.

Meanwhile, the sixteenth generation of Nicholas, Lucy, Martina and Clare is growing...

RECIPE OF TODAY

Rice panzerotti

(da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 500gr of rice, 2 eggs, 100gr of cheese grated, salt, pepper, Extra virgin olive oil Cantina Coppola

Cook the rice as if we were preparing a classic risotto with vegetable broth. Let it cool down, then add the grated cheese, eggs and mix well. Make panzerotti that can be stuffed to taste: with tuna and capers, with pieces of various cheeses or with minced meat cooked before in the extra virgin olive oil Cantina Coppola and flavored with a little 'tomato sauce. Finally, once stuffed close well and pass them in breadcrumbs, now fry them in abundant extra virgin olive oil Cantina Coppola.

ONE CHURCH, THREE TITLES

Among the many churches in the historic center of Gallipoli, we find one along the main street, via Antonietta De Pace, dating from the end of 1500. The building in question is the church of Saints Peter and Paul, under the title of St. Joseph of Good Death, the latter taken from the brotherhood that has been based here since 1904. Before being a confraternity oratory, the church was part of the complex of Santa Chiara, which also included a monastery unfortunately now replaced by a new building that houses the primary school. The interior of the church, contrasting with the simplicity of the external facade, is richly decorated with marble and canvas. Last but not least, the choir, located at the top right of the entrance, an example of Baroque applied to the wood (photo above, taken from gallipolinweb.com).
