THE FESTIVITIES OF FERRAGOSTO #2 THE "MADONNA DELLA LIZZA"

Also this year Alezio, a few kilometers from Gallipoli, dresses up to celebrate and prepare to honor his patron saint, Our Lady of Lizza. Like every year, the city is filled with coloured light bulbs that light up its streets, gangs and fanfares that mark the main moments of the festival and fireworks that glisten late at night. It begins on August 14, with the opening in the morning of the festival, accompanied by the marches of the fanfare of the bersaglieri. In the evening, after the Mass, the long procession will unfold throughout the town. On August 15, the blank shots greet the day of celebration, with the fair where you can find everything and more, along with that of livestock, always a point of reference for local farmers. Important band concerts alternate in the evening then, until the last performance will start with the fireworks show. On August 16, the appointment with music and this year also continues on 17, with the Sagra della Pittula. An eagerly awaited event, from the inhabitants of Salento but also from tourists. At the reception you can find the full programme.

TODAY, IN HISTORY

Today's event is very important for the history of the whole Salento and is linked to the event we spoke about yesterday. On August 14, 1480, after the fall of Otranto, 813 idruntines were executed by the Ottoman army because of their refusal to convert to the Islamic faith.

ICE-COVERED TAFURI PASSITO IS A DISCOVERY!

The serving temperature of a wine is often enclosed in preconceived patterns that want the colder whites and the reds at room temperature. The passito Tafuri Igt Salento is a blend of Negroamaro and Primitivo grapes that will surprise you. A purplish aubergine color, concentrated and bright. Scents of red fruits, blackberries, cherries, and blackberries, for a great olfactory complexity and a vigorous palate, of a sumptuous sweetness. On hot summer evenings, taste it frozen to accompany small sins of the throat.

RECIPE OF TODAY

Peppers with breadcrumbs

(da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 500gr of yellow peppers, 300gr of breadcrumbs, 30gr of capers, salt, pepper, vinegar, extra virgin olive oil Cantina Coppola

Wash the peppers, cut them into pieces and fry them. In another pot put olive oil, a clove of garlic and breadcrumbs (when the oil is hot), taking care to turn everything so that nothing is burned. After a few minutes add the fried peppers and peppers and cook for a few more minutes in breadcrumbs and oil. When cooked, add the capers with a few drops of a good vinegar. Peperonata can be served hot or cold.

THE SANCTUARY BASTION OF FAITH AND SECURITY

In addition to the festival, the symbol of Alezio is certainly the sanctuary dedicated to its patron saint, Santa Maria della Lizza, dating back to the time of the Basilians of the X-XI century. The structure is very particular, one of the few examples of church that is also a fortress, with the high tower that stands out from the promontory on which it is located. For about a century, in 1200, it was elevated to Cathedral because of the fall of Gallipoli. Inside there are many frescoes and canvases, dating back to different eras, testimony that during the succession of events and historical periods the church has retained its function as a symbol of continuity. A religious and defensive building, a sign of the importance of faith and security for this territory, rich in history and culture and at the same time strategic.
