NEGROAMARO
WHITE, TASTE
AND ELEGANCE

The Rocci di Cantina Coppola, the first white Negroamaro ever, was born in 2006 from the intuition of Carlo Antonio Coppola and the oenologist Giuseppe Pizzolante Leuzzi, convinced that the peculiar organoleptic characteristics of Negroamaro could also give the white wine a structure of great impact. The first vintages were bottled as Table Wine, because no DOC and IGT contemplated the vinification of Negroamaro in white. Subsequently, the name of Igt Puglia was obtained. Today among our most appreciated wine.

GRECÌA SALENTINA#3 MARTANO

The journey between the villages of Griko, the dialect of Grecìa , typical of the central area of Salento, takes us today in the municipality of Martano. With its 9000 inhabitants is the most populous city in Grecìa Salentina, and since 2017 has also become the city of aloe, thanks to the many activities involved in the cultivation and transformation of this plant. The origins of this country date back to prehistory, as evidenced by some monuments of the time, passing through the Roman and Byzantine occupation, the latter very important for the definition of culture, folklore tradition. Here too there are many things to see among churches such as that of Our Lady of the Assumption, the Dominicans, the immaculate, Santa Maria degli angeli. Not only churches, however, the old town offers many curiosities, including the houses at court, typical of that area and Salento everything.
