PUGLIA, THE FAVOURITE OF ITALIANS

The Puglia is confirmed as a favorite destination for Italians and their summer holidays, with a growing trend and satisfactory numbers. According to Codacons, this year there will be 34 million Italians on holiday, a sign that the recovery of the tourism sector continues, and this will move a turnover of about 23 billion euros. Puglia, we said, is the queen of the Italian summer, welcoming 20% of Italians who have decided to stay at home for the holidays. It will be for its clear sea, for the villages rich in art and history or for its flavors, our region continues to have a strong appeal!

Horoscope, what the stars say

Today's sign is SCORPION. Don't let yourself be carried away by the moment, you get too involved in situations with all the risks that this entails.

TODAY, IN HISTORY

On August 4, 1693, 325 years ago, Dom Pierre Perignon, a Benedictine monk from Hautvillier Abbey, developed the vinification technique that added bubbles to the product. The technique, known as "champenoise", started the production of champagne.

On the evening before cooking, put the broad beans in cold water, with a teaspoon of salt. In the morning, drain the broad beans, rinse them under the water and put them in an earthenware container and cover them with cold water. Cook until they begin to become cream, stir continuously for a few minutes with a wooden spoon, add salt and olive oil. When the cream of broad beans is ready, turn off the heat. During the cooking of the broad beans, meanwhile, separately prepare the vegetables. Serve broad beans and vegetables in the same dish.

PRESICCE SHOWS ITS VILLAGE

The small village of Presicce, rightly included among the most beautiful in Italy, awaits you on the evening of August 5 to show you all its beauty with the event "Presicce in mostra". It will not be a simple walk in the historic center, which became famous for being chosen by Ferrero as the protagonist of the Christmas holidays, illuminating it with thousands of lights. All the most important places, in fact, will be open to the public with art exhibitions, tastings, performances by street artists, exhibitions of Salento crafts and folk music. Among the most characteristic places to visit are the various underground oil mills, which are the particularity of this city, not only because they are underground, but also because the trade of lamp oil has been for so long the main economic activity. An event for a whole village to discover!

EVENTS

> Tonight starts in Supersano the Puccia Festival, the typical bread of Salento almost always seasoned with olives, but not only. It can be done by many and this festival is an opportunity to discover it. The historic centre of the town is the ideal location to taste these typical products, along with meat dishes and much more. Of course, there will also be music from Salento, a sparkling accompaniment.

> In Vitigliano (Santa Cesarea Terme) tonight begins the Festival of Cucuzzata, typical food of this small community. With flour, onions, black olives and courgettes, this food is important and substantial, to be seasoned at will.

> In Ortelle, on the occasion of the First Festival of typical flavors comes the comedy of the "Ciciri and Tria" along with the pizzica and of course the flavors to taste, from 21:00.
