ROUND WORLD ON THE WEB

We all went at least once on google maps to browse around the world, to places where we have never been or where we would like to go, to plan a vacation or to see if that city is as beautiful as they say. The fact remains that even if live is always different, browsing the web does not cost anything. To make the experience even more realistic Google has implemented a real revolution in graphics: the earth is now spherical even on the web, with visualization and proportion of territories improved. The most obvious problem was the size of Greenland, which before was almost equal to Africa when in fact it is not. So, if 500 years ago the discovery of the sphericity of the earth depended on very dangerous navigation, now it just takes a click.

TODAY, IN HISTORY

On 9 August 1173 in Pisa started the works for the construction of the bell tower of the church of Santa Maria Assunta. They didn't imagine that the structure would not be just any old bell tower. We are talking, of course, about the tower of Pisa.

NEGROAMARO
WHITE, TASTE
AND ELEGANCE

The Rocci di Cantina Coppola, the first white Negroamaro ever, was born in 2006 from the intuition of Carlo Antonio Coppola and the oenologist Giuseppe Pizzolante Leuzzi, convinced that the peculiar organoleptic characteristics of Negroamaro could also give the white wine a structure of great impact. The first vintages were bottled as Table Wine, because no DOC and IGT contemplated the vinification of Negroamaro in white. Subsequently, the name of Igt Puglia was obtained. Today among our most appreciated wine.

GRECIA SALENTINA#5 STERNATIA

Fifth stop of the journey that leads us to discover the small villages of Grecia Salentina, a territory in the center of Salento whose inhabitants are united by their linguistic roots, with the Griko dialect. Today's town is Sternatia, with only 2400 inhabitants. The menhirs present in the territory suggest settlements dating back to the Neolithic period, although the presence of a little 'more important dates back to the period of the Roman Empire. After that, the city became a feud of the Byzantines, who fortified the city and transmitted language, customs and traditions. Over time, several families managed the village, the most important of which were the Granafei family, with their baronial residence still present in the village. To see there are many churches and the historic center, several farms and the Porta Filia.
