RECIPE OF TODAY

Mussels “arraganate” (da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 1kg of black mussels, 1 egg, 150gr of breadcrumbs, capers, parsley, pepper, oil.

Mix the bread crumbs with the capers, egg, pepper, parsley, and water from the mussels themselves, some like to add some grated sweet cheese and oregano. The mussels, previously opened by hand or if you can not manage made to stay on low heat with lid for about 15 minutes, should be deprived of one of the two valves (the one without the mussels of course) and in the other should be put the dough we have prepared and baked in a baking pan in the oven already hot 180 ° for about ten minutes. Leave to cook for about ten minutes.

THE REGIONAL NATURE PARK IN PORTO SELVAGGIO

Extending over an area of 1100 hectares in the territory of Nardò, the Regional Natural Park of Porto Selvaggio, was established in an area by the sea affected by various reforestation works begun in the 50s. First barren and rocky, today the landscape is characterized by the presence of a dense pine forest in the beautiful setting of the Ionian Sea. The main habitat is wooded but there are also the substeppic routes, the habitats rich in grasses and annual plants and the jagged cliff. Visitors have the opportunity to spot foxes, weasels, hedgehogs, chameleons and, during the migration period, also the blackbird, the thrush and the hoopoe as well as the lesser kestrel and the kestrel. A few meters from the coast you can also visit the Captain's Swamp where the karst phenomenon has given rise to the "spunnulate", or caves to which collapsed the vault forming brackish water ponds. All to admire are, moreover, the delightful pebble beach in the bay of Porto Selvaggio, crowded summer destination of bathers, and the underwater caves. (da viaggiareinpu-glia.it)
