DOES SUMMER BEGIN?

Many of us have already enjoyed the sun and sea that greeted the arrival in June with a short but intense taste of summer. For some days now, the weather has been swinging so much so as to cast doubt on expectations for the summer that, officially, has not even begun. It is tomorrow, in fact, with the summer solstice, that we will be able to declare the summer officially open. Every year, in fact, on June 21, the sun reaches its maximum value of positive declination, making this the longest day of the year giving the green light, in addition to summer in the northern hemisphere, to winter in the southern hemisphere. The phenomenon of the "Midnight Sun", which occurs in the places between the polar circles and the poles, where the night arrives towards the one and the sun remains above the horizon even at midnight, is particular.

TODAY, IN HISTORY

Horoscope, what the stars say

Today's sign is the CAPRICORN. It's an interesting phase from all points of view, in love above all. You need to rethink your work strategies and continue to pay, even if there are many of them.

On 20 June 1991, 27 years ago, in a vote of 338 against 320, it was decided that Berlin would be the only new capital of unified Germany.

Patitari, The sweet taste Ionian

Salento IGT, takes its name from the noble and ancient descendants of Patitari. Family with illustrious men of letters and weapons among its family members. Primitive in purity aged in oak barrels. Intense ruby red, warm and aromatic scent, full flavor. It encloses the whole Mediterranean area; it is cultivated in the homonymous Patitari estate inside the Camping La Masseria. A lovely red but with a character that suffers from the beneficial influence of the Ionian Sea.

RECIPE OF TODAY

Mullet “alla gallipolina”

(da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 6 large mullets, 2 cloves of garlic, parsley, breadcrumbs, salt, pepper, olive oil

Take six beautiful big mullets of about 250 g, do not peel them but cut the head and gut them, rinse them, if possible, in sea water. Chop 2 garlic cloves with a tuft of parsley leaves, 2-3 tablespoons of breadcrumbs, a pinch of salt and a pinch of pepper, mix well. Put 4-5 tablespoons of olive oil into a bowl, in which the mullets are immersed and immediately afterwards rolled up in the previously prepared sauce. Place them on the hot grill and cook them on both sides.

RAILWAY MUSEUM OF PUGLIA

Among the many things to visit in Lecce and throughout Salento there is the railway museum of the spire, quite unique, since in southern Italy there is only one other, that of Pietrarsa in Naples. Behind the current railway station of Lecce, with entrance from via Pisanelli, the museum offers a panoramic view of the railway world of the Puglia and Salento, where there was the largest railway concession in Italy, returned, however, in the hands of the State Railways. With its 12 themed rooms, it ranges from the excursus on the railway history of the Puglia, through the exhibition of old and new work tools, the reconstruction of an executive room. Obviously there is also the modeling with the library to close with the last rooms where, inside the sheds, you can admire the actual rolling stock, starting from the steam locomotives to get to the railcars that have served until recently. Information on ticket prices and timetables can be found on the museum's official website: <http://ferromuseopuglia.altervista.org/>
