LECCE, THE HEART OF SALENTO

The beating heart and the centre of Salento, Lecce is now a growing reality from all points of view. In the cultural, economic and tourist dimension, in fact, it has nothing to envy to the most important cities of southern Italy, second only to Naples for arrivals and tourist presence. Its historic centre, a treasure chest of outdoor art, contains numerous examples of Lecce Baroque, from churches to noble palaces. Obligatory stops for tourists are: Piazza Sant'Oronzo with the Roman amphitheater, Piazza Duomo with its imposing bell tower, the church of S. Croce, S. Irene, the ancient entrance gates to the historic center and the section of the walls recently recovered. There is so much to do and see that for sure this space is not enough, so in the next issues we will give you more details about places to visit in the city!

TODAY, IN HISTORY

On June 12, 1897, 121 years ago, Karl Elsener obtained a patent for a special knife, initially called "the officer's" and then known as "Swiss". The tool, equipped with a special spring mechanism, is also supplied with a series of very useful tools.

ICE-COVERED TAFURI PASSITO IS A DISCOVERY!

The serving temperature of a wine is often enclosed in preconceived patterns that want the colder whites and the reds at room temperature. The passito Tafuri Igt Salento is a blend of Negroamaro and Primitivo grapes that will surprise you. A purplish aubergine color, concentrated and bright. Scents of red fruits, blackberries, cherries, and black berries, for a great olfactory complexity and a vigorous palate, of a sumptuous sweetness. On hot summer evenings, taste it frozen to accompany small sins of the throat.

RECIPE OF TODAY

Fasciolar soup, mussels and clams

(da ricettedellanonna.net)

Ingredients: long aubergines, cherry tomatoes, olive oil, pepper salt, 50gr of breadcrumbs, 50gr of grated Parmesan cheese.

Gather the clams and fasolari in a large bowl filled with fresh water. Let them drain from the sand for 2 hours changing the water a couple of times. In the meantime, clean the mussels, removing the beard from each one. Cut the cherry tomatoes in half. Heat the oil in a pan and brown the garlic in a shirt. Add the fasolari and drained clams, mussels and cherry tomatoes. Blend with white wine. Cover and cook over low heat for at least 15 minutes, covering with a lid. Toast the slices of bread. When the mollusc soup is cooked, serve it in holsters, accompanying it with bread. Dust with chopped parsley and freshly ground black pepper.

THE “MALLATRONE”, THE HORRIFIC BEAUTY

Among the churches that surround the rivieras of the historic center stands out, for its particular facade, that of St. Francis of Assisi, also called church "tu mmalatrone" by residents, for the statue of the thief located inside the Chapel of the Spaniards, located inside the church itself, on the right. Legend has it that the clothes of this statue wear quickly, almost every year, symbolizing the sin that this character still retains today, because of his refusal to repent on the cross, beside Christ. The statue, also seen by the poet Gabriele d'Annunzio during his visit to Gallipoli, was defined by the same "the horrific beauty".
