ITALY, CULTURE, TOURISM

Salento is a land of culture, beauty and breathtaking landscapes, like the whole of Italy. Our country, not by chance, is defined as "the most beautiful in the world" and the numbers that revolve around the economy of culture and tourism show that our beauties, material and immaterial, are not only beautiful to see but also important to enhance. The latest report by Symbola and Unioncamere on the subject has shown that the sector involves 414,000 companies with one and a half million employees and a total turnover of 255 billion euros. These are remarkable figures, which can certainly be increased given the industriousness of the sector!

TODAY, IN HISTORY

Horoscope, what the stars say

Today's sign for Paolo Fox is the CANCER. For you, beautiful emotions are coming, surround yourself with people who are not able to ruin them and find the right time to enjoy them.

Although the first models date back to the early nineteenth century, the typewriter was patented and began commercial success on 23 June 1868, exactly 150 years ago, by Lantham Sholes, Carlos Glidden and Samuel Soule.

RECIPE OF TODAY

Slices of tuna in sauce (da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 600gr of tuna or alalunga or palamita, 1 clove of garlic, 1 small chili, 300gr of tomato sauce, parsley, 4 tablespoons of extra virgin olive oil, capers, olives.

Prepare some sauce. Put some extra virgin olive oil, garlic and chilli pepper in a pan and heat everything up well.

When the oil is very hot, throw in the fish pieces and turn them repeatedly over high heat for 3 or 4 minutes.

Then lower the heat, pour the previously prepared sauce, capers and olives, and leave to cook over low heat for ½ an hour. Then turn off the heat, put a beautiful splintering of chopped parsley and serve.

SANTA MARIA AL BAGNO

Inhabited since Messapian times, Santa Maria al bagno, now hamlets of Nardò, was an important village in the area. The Romans made it a spa and in the twelfth century it was home to the Teutonic knights, thus becoming a point of passage where the soldiers who took part in the crusades stopped. However, it was gradually abandoned from the invasion of the Saracens until the almost total destruction occurred with the arrival of the Venetians who had the upper hand over Gallipoli. The reconstruction of the small fishing village began when they realized its tourist value and began to build sumptuous buildings for the holidays, until it became a known and privileged place for the holidays thanks to its crystal clear sea and its characteristic sandy inlet near the houses. The beauty of this place also depends on its historical importance. In fact, this was the place indicated by the Allies during the war to host the almost 100,000 Jews who had escaped the concentration camps. For this reason, in 2005 H.M. Al bagno received the gold medal for civil valor from the President of the Republic Carlo Azeglio Ciampi. To commemorate this event there is a museum of memory and hospitality, opened in 2009.
