SENSORS AND AUTONOMY, THE FUTURE OF THE CAR

A lot has been said these days about cars and manufacturers because of the abrupt change of control for FCA, which has seen completely renewed the top management now, for the first time in the history of the company, by a non-Italian. However, what was feared has happened. Sergio Marchionne died yesterday morning in the Zurich clinic where he was hospitalized. What are the FCA summits going to do now? They will certainly have to focus a great deal on the innovative sectors of the car in order not to fall behind and lose the advantage that has been so painstakingly gained. These days, the City Council of Turin has approved a protocol with the Ministry of Infrastructure to indicate an area of the city that can be used for experimenting with self-propelled cars. Now increasingly interconnected, the sensors available on cars are more and more and cover more and more functions. So Turin, home of FIAT, is preparing to welcome companies and researchers from all over the world for tests and experiments. Will FCA be able to enter these new sectors, including the production of electric cars?

NEGROAMARO
WHITE, TASTE
AND ELEGANCE

The Rocci di Cantina Coppola, the first white Negroamaro ever, was born in 2006 from the intuition of Carlo Antonio Coppola and the oenologist Giuseppe Pizzolante Leuzzi, convinced that the peculiar organoleptic characteristics of Negroamaro could also give the white wine a structure of great impact. The first vintages were bottled as Table Wine, because no DOC and IGT contemplated the vinification of Negroamaro in white. Subsequently, the name of Igt Puglia was obtained. Today among our most appreciated wine.

RECIPE OF TODAY

Meat “alla pignata”

(da velocissimo.it)

Ingredients: 300gr of veal pulp, 300gr of muscle, 300gr bacon, 6/7 ripe tomatoes, 1 red onion, parsley, salt, pepper, extra virgin olive oil Cantina Coppola

In a "pignata" (earthenware pot) put meat of different cuts, in large pieces and cover with water, adding pieces of ripe tomatoes, onion, parsley, salt and pepper, abundant extra virgin olive oil. Leave to cook for a long time until you get a thick and tasty sauce.

GRECIA SALENTINA#3 CASTRIGNANO DEI GRECI

Continue our little journey to discover the municipalities of the Grecia Salentina. Today's stage is Castrignano dei Greci. Already from the name you can guess the origin of the site, which at the time of the Roman conquest of the Salento peninsula became a military camp: a castrum. Other sources refer to more ancient origins, dating back to the era of Magna Graecia. There are many places to visit, of a civil and religious nature, including the baronial castle, an ancient structure dating back to the Middle Ages and used as a means of defense, then refined over time. The pozzelle, groupings of small water tanks dug into the rock. The different churches of the town: the mother church, the church of the immaculate, that of the Arcona, along with other chapels, old and recent, scattered in the town. Here, too, of course, the dialect is Griko.

EVENTS

> Tonight the celebrations close in honour of Santa Cristina, copatroness of Gallipoli. After 3 days of lights, music, local flavors and fireworks shows, it closes with an evening with the Flashback show, with music of different types to unleash. From 22:00 in Piazza Tellini.

> This evening in Porto Cesareo begins the Fish Festival. The opening of the stands is scheduled for 19:00, at Piazzale De Gasperi, near the headquarters of the Pro Loco. Of course, there will be popular music.

> From today and for three days the Festa te la Uliata in Caprarica di Lecce, during which you can taste the small typical peel of the country, along with Salento music to listen to.
