IN LEUCA A MONUMENTAL BEAUTY: THE FALLS

For the Leuca series not to be missed: in addition to the breathtaking view offered by the small village and the numerous landscape and artistic attractions, there is a particular monument, dating back almost 100 years ago, which marks the end of the Apulian aqueduct: the monumental waterfall. Completed by Mussolini in 1939, the year in which the aqueduct arrived in this land and was completed the water supply, with the halt of work due to the First World War. The waterfall is flanked by two ramps of 300 steps and at the end there is a Roman column, arrived directly from Rome to celebrate the conclusion of the work. Currently the fountain has been equipped with an artistic lighting system, creating an unparalleled scenario, between water games and colors.

NEGROAMARO
WHITE, TASTE
AND ELEGANCE

The Rocci di Cantina Coppola, the first white Negramaro ever, was born in 2006 from the intuition of Carlo Antonio Coppola and the oenologist Giuseppe Pizzolante Leuzzi, convinced that the peculiar organoleptic characteristics of Negramaro could also give the white wine a structure of great impact. The first vintages were bottled as Table Wine, because no DOC and IGT contemplated the vinification of Negramaro in white. Subsequently, the name of Igt Puglia was obtained. Today among our most appreciated wine.

THE CHURCH OF CARMINE, SIMPLICITY AND TRADITION

Entering the old town from Via Antonietta De Pace, the main street, you come across a church not so clearly decorated, quite simple, but for the gallipolini represents a bulwark of faith and tradition. We are talking about the Oratorio confraternale di Maria SS. Del Monte Carmelo, where the homonymous confraternity has its seat for centuries. The current building, in neo-classical style, dates back to 1838, rebuilt on another structure of 1530. The period of particular ferment for this reality is the Easter one, with the procession of the Madonna Addolorata on Friday before the palm trees. The whole city participates in this religious event almost in unison, without missing any of the moments of the day: from the exit of the procession to the evocative blessing of the sea in the evening, passing through the various executions of sacred oratories during the stops in the various parishes. Recommended for those who can make a winter trip to Gallipoli!
