THE LIGHTEST FEAST OF THE YEAR

From today and for 4 days, Scorrano is preparing to welcome the faithful and guests on the occasion of the celebrations in honor of Santa Domenica, patron of the village to which the inhabitants are devoted, with a bond confirmed by the magnificence of the festival that is organized. It is certainly the illuminations that dominate here, true and proper luminous monuments, unfortunately temporary. Increasingly large, unusual and spectacular structures fill the streets of the city, with millions of coloured light bulbs creating an almost magical atmosphere. Not only colors, however, since the accessioni are always to the rhythm of music, with spectacular effects resulting from technologies applied to the lighting industry, for which the salento is now a school in the world. Also fireworks are a feature of this festival, with July 6 practically full of fireworks performances, both day and night. There will also be local flavors, with "M'illumino di gusto" and Street Food, thanks to which you can learn about and taste the typical products and excellence of Salento in the setting of the old town, obviously also illuminated. Follow us, to stay updated on the various events of these 4 days!

TODAY, IN HISTORY

Horoscope, what the stars say

Today's sign is FISH. The right day for love, great to go further and design something important for the future. Don't pull back!

104 years ago in Sarajevo there was the attack on the heir to the throne of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, by Gavrilo Princip. The event went down in history as the detonator of the First World War.

NEGROAMARO
WHITE, TASTE
AND ELEGANCE

The Rocci di Cantina Coppola, the first white Negroamaro ever, was born in 2006 from the intuition of Carlo Antonio Coppola and the oenologist Giuseppe Pizzolante Leuzzi, convinced that the peculiar organoleptic characteristics of Negroamaro could also give the white wine a structure of great impact. The first vintages were bottled as Table Wine, because no DOC and IGT contemplated the vinification of Negroamaro in white. Subsequently, the name of Igt Puglia was obtained. Today among our most appreciated wine.

Put a clove of garlic and the anchovies into a pan, add the extra-virgin olive oil and let the olive oil Cantina Coppola smoke well. SCORRANO AND S. DOMENICA A SECULAR BOND

The story that binds Santa Domenica to Scorrano takes us back about 4 centuries, when the Saint appeared in a dream to a woman in the city, to whom she said she wanted to be the patron saint of Scorrano, asking the lady to communicate this to the parish priest of the city. In exchange for this recognition, the Saint promised to free the city from the plague that was raging. Those who were healed, to be recognizable, would put a lamp on the window. These first flames have started the tradition of light that distinguishes the festival of Scorrano.
